

KAI HUSCHKE presents:

“PEND OREILLE COUNTY’S
RIGHT TO BE RURAL WILL REQUIRE RESISTANCE & RESILIENCE”

Pend Oreille County is a unique and special place. However, whether it is about the forests, the river, or the collection of communities on the landscape, so much of what has shaped and continues to shape life in Pend Oreille County is actually out of the hands of those who call it home. Come to learn how to navigate the disconnect between what you feel and perhaps believe to what is reality around the state, and the future of Pend Oreille County.
